Nikonians Academy Workshop Leaders – North America

We are looking for multiple workshop leaders who can commit to teaching a regular schedule of photographic and software workshops in cities throughout the USA. If you have an excellent ability to teach and a very good grasp of photography, then we encourage you to apply right away.

The objective of this role is to teach excellent workshops to other Nikonians members on topics such as:

- Nikon Capture NX2
- Photoshop
- Digital camera operation (Nikon D300/D300s, D700, D3/D3X/D3Xs, etc.)
- Nikon i-TTL Flash, CLS
- Other topics as necessary (Adobe Lightroom, Bibble, Travel Photography, Landscape Photography, Wildlife Photography, etc.)

Requirements:

- Excellent interpersonal and relational skills
- Excellent ability to teach complicated photographic topics
- Burning enthusiasm and excitement for photography
- Good organizational skills
- Solve problems as they arise
- Very good computer skills
- Be fluent in English, both in written and oral communication
- Able and willing to travel and commit time on weekends

Compensation will be arranged as a workshop revenue sharing agreement between the workshop leader and the Nikonians Academy

Nikonians is looking for people with exceptional skills who thrive in highly energetic, small and focused teams. As a global community, we believe in our ability to enhance the world of photography and imaging, shortening the learning curve. We rely on a team approach that understands the concept of community spirit, creativity and idealism, which amounts to more than the sum of the individual parts themselves.
